

DARK CLOUD COVER:

A dark cloud cover pattern is a chart pattern that forms when a bullish candlestick is followed by a bearish one which meets the following criteria: a) it opens with a gap higher and b) closes below the 50% retracement of the first (bullish) one. This is considered a strong reversal formation.