

BEARISH HARAMI:

A bearish harami pattern is a chart pattern that forms when a large bullish candlestick is followed by a smaller bearish one whose body is within the range (inside) of the first one. This is considered a reversal formation.